

Spelling and Thinking

READ the Basic Words

Ⓜ Watch out for easily misspelled words!

- | | |
|-----------------|---------------------|
| 1. familiar | familiar |
| 2. liaison | liaison |
| 3. postpone | postpone |
| 4. exhaust | exhaust |
| 5. exhilarating | exhilarating |
| 6. committee | committee |
| 7. reliable | reliable |
| 8. jealousy | jealousy |
| 9. frivolous | frivolous |
| 10. spontaneous | spontaneous |
| 11. prejudice | prejudice |
| 12. procedure | procedure |
| 13. lightning | lightning |
| 14. numerous | numerous |
| 15. irrelevant | irrelevant |
| 16. genuine | genuine |
| 17. forehead | forehead |
| 18. luxury | luxury |
| 19. minimum | minimum |
| 20. aluminum | aluminum |

Are you familiar with this ancient city?
 He is our liaison with the student council.
 Rain forced us to postpone the game.
 The five-mile hike did not exhaust us.
 A ride down a slide is exhilarating.
 The committee met to plan the parade.
 I chose a reliable person for the job.
 Do not let jealousy end a friendship.
 I bought a frivolous and impractical gift.
 His joyful answer was spontaneous.
 She has a prejudice against traveling.
 What is your message-taking procedure?
 The power went out when lightning struck.
 She had numerous phone calls to make.
 Her question was irrelevant to the topic.
 Is this necklace genuine gold?
 His hair partially covers his forehead.
 His life is filled with comfort and luxury.
 I need a minimum of nine hours of sleep.
 This picnic chair is made of aluminum.

Review

- | | |
|--------------|----------------|
| 21. bouquet | 23. maneuver |
| 22. courtesy | 24. picnicking |
| | 25. pursue |

Challenge

- | | |
|-------------------|--------------------|
| 26. annihilate | 28. chrysanthemums |
| 27. chiropractor | 29. clientele |
| 30. dysfunctional | |